

THE ROYAL SCOTTISH NATIONAL ORCHESTRA

Facing the Future: Our Triumphs and Challenges

Tess Campbell, Campaign Director
12 November 2012

- Bringing music to new audiences in new ways
- Sharing music across Scotland
- Involving ever greater numbers of young people
- Playing amongst a field of international artists that can attract the finest artists.

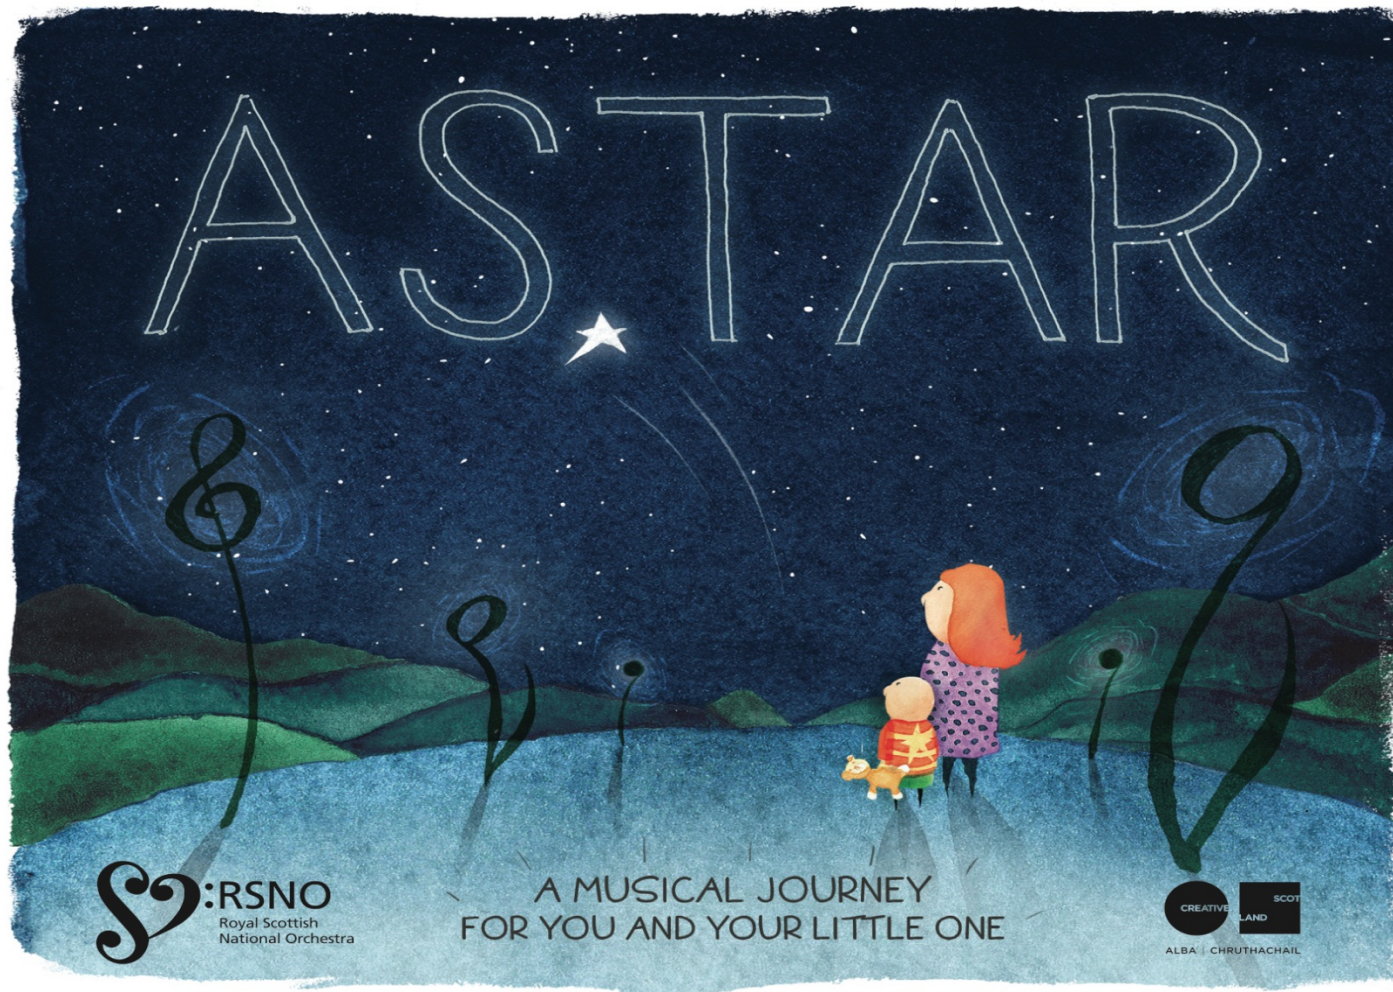

SCOTLAND'S FIVE NATIONAL PERFORMING COMPANIES

- Scottish Ballet
- Scottish Chamber Orchestra
- Scottish Opera
- National Theatre of Scotland
- The Royal Scottish National Orchestra

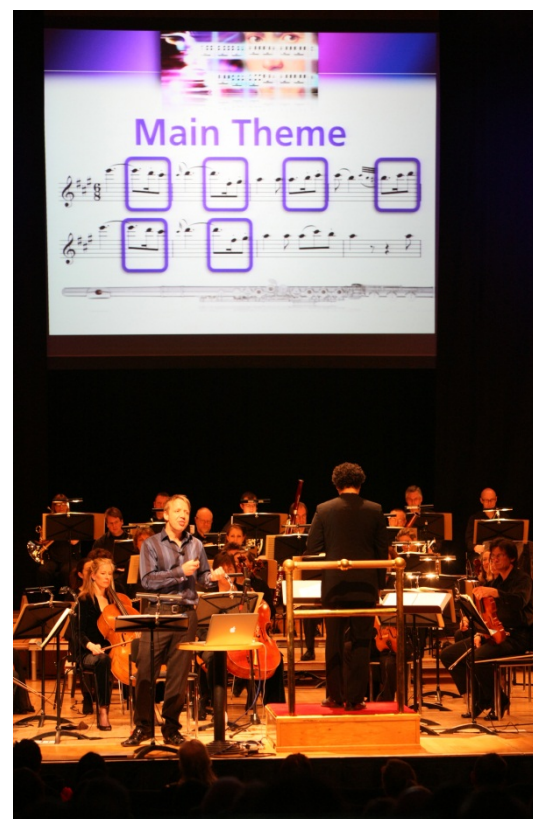

Committed to bringing the power of live,
orchestral music to young people and families

NAKED CLASSICS

An opportunity to listen with a new sense of discovery

Arriving in the Shetland Islands.....

RSNO Visits the Shetland Islands, March 2012

Peter Oundjian, RSNO Music Director

Peter's arrival - a fantastic coup

RSNO Concert on an Oil Rig, 2006

RSNO NEW HOME: NEW AMBITIONS CAMPAIGN

What our success will look like....

If you would like to know more about any aspect of our work or ambitions, please get in touch:

Tess Campbell
Campaign Director

The Royal Scottish National Orchestra

T 0141-225 3583

E tess.campbell@rsno.org.uk